

Book 6, Tug, tug

Talk about the story:

Black Hat Bob is fishing from his boat using a fishing rod. He is looking forward to eating a lovely supper of fish and chips.

Begin by reading the story words. Can your child 'Fred' in their head ... in other words can they sight read the words or silently decode them and then say the word out loud?

catch	fat	sat	will	yes	big
then	rod	and	fish →	fish ing
chip →	ch ips		he	said	no

- Remember, you can't 'Fred' a red! Use the first sound as a clue.
- Underlined sounds show 'special friends' where 2 letters = 1 sound.
- → ... shows root word then the added letter/s which change the tense of the action or makes more than one / a plural. Read the root word first, then add the ending making sure all sounds are heard.

Now you are ready to read the story.

Tug, tug

Black Hat Bob got his fishing rod.

“I will catch a big fat fish,”
he said

“Fish and chips – yum!”

He sat ...

and he sat ...

No big fish.

Then ...

tug tug

“Yes ... a fish!” said Black Hat Bob.

“Hmmm!”
